ADVERTISEMENTS.

WILLIAMSBURG, Nov. 1, 1769.

AS we find the debtors to the late Treasurer's estate still backward in discharging their balances, and that we shall be obliged to proceed to the disagreeable task of levying executions for what is due from them, which we are resolved to do without delay; and as it is uncertain whether we can even by that method raise in any short time sufficient to discharge the large balance due from that estate to the country, we have determined, in order to remove all cause for farther complaint, to sell the greatest part of the estate on short credit, and only reserve sufficient to maintain the late Treasurer's innocent injured family in a decent frugal manner until his affairs can be finally settled. We therefore now give notice that we shall in the months of January and February next sell all that very valuable TRACT of LAND in Hanover county, containing about 4000 acres, known by the name of the Scotch Town estate, with all the SLAVES, STOCKS, and TOOLS thereon; also another tract of fine tobacco LAND, lying in Spotsylvania county, containing about 5000 acres, with the SLAVES, STOCKS, and TOOLS thereon; likewise a valuable TRACT of LAND in the upper end of King and Queen county, containing about 1500 acres, known by the name of the Mercrefick tract, with the SLAVES, STOCKS, and TOOLS thereon; and several other TRACTS of LAND in the county of King and Queen, with the SLAVES and STOCKS thereon, a particular description of which will be published in due time, and notice then given of the days of sale, and reasonable discount will be allowed for ready money. And to prevent disputes with the purchasers, we hereby give farther notice that we will not warrant the title of any part of the estate sold by us as administrators, but we do assure those that may be inclined to purchase that we will not sell any estate where we know or have any reason to suspect the title to be defective, without giving proper notice of it at the time of sale.

At the same time and place will be sold a tract of fine level LAND, adjoining the said town of Newcastle, containing about 90 acres, with several valuable tenements thereon that rent for 30 or 40l. a year, belonging to the said John Robinson's estate, and to John Syme, Esq; who has agreed to join in the sale thereof. Extract of a letter from St. Vincent's, August 26.

"THE day before yesterday our guarda costa, on her cruise between St. Lucia and this island, was attacked by four Indian pettiaugers, with 19 men in each. The Caribbees were destroyed to a man, and the pettiaugers sunk in the engagement, with a loss on our side of only two men killed and one wounded; the guarda costa carried only 12 men. Some few days before this a northward sloop had run ashore on the windward part of this island, and the crew were all cut to pieces by the inhabitants there. Captain Dring sailed this morning in search of four more pettiaugers, of which he has received intelligence."

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman in Scotland, by the last vessel.

"YOU desire to have my thoughts on American affairs. It seems to me you have only to be quiet and steady, and if your publick virtue is staunch enough to keep you in your scheme of economy, and the prosecution of manufacture among yourselves, you must certainly gain your point; yea I imagine you will, in a great degree, draw off the labourers and artificers from hence, the most useful members of the community. Duties were imposed, to be paid in America, upon certain British manufactures: Consequences prove this to have been an ill judged measure, and the colonies have greatly defeated it by their combination not to import these manufactures. Your commissioners complained they were not in safety to levy these duties, without being supported by a military force: Troops are sent, but they serve only to circulate money in Boston, and by the desertions to people your country. There seems infatuation, rather than judgment, in these measures. You say your friends in England increase: No wonder; there seems nothing wanting but more knowledge of the matter to make every man a friend to America, or, more properly speaking, to the common interest of the mother country and her colonies."

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman of publick character in London, July 21.

"I wish, on the new Baronet's leaving the province, the flame of party rage may be extinguished; but our Ministry do not seem yet to take the proper means to effect it. I highly commend your zeal for the preservation of your liberties, and hope, in the end, it will have a good effect. Nothing is to be done at present on this side the water, the Nobility being all out of town. A steady firm adherence does more service to a cause than a rash fiery zeal. There is a report that Lord Hillsborough will resign; if so, it may perhaps be followed with other changes, for the present Ministry are very obnoxious to the people here, and petitioning against their measures is going on from every quarter. I will cheerfully take every opportunity to promote the real interest of your province, as I sympathise with them under all their burthens."

PROVIDENCE, October 21.

FROM different parts of the country we learn that a dangerous distemper has broke out among the dogs, several having lately gone mad. An ox belonging to Captain Ephraim Pearce, of Johnston, was some time since bit by one of those animals, but as the ox was not immediately affected, and the wound healed, it was hoped no bad consequences would ensue; however, in about six weeks after symptoms of the malady appeared, which increased until it became dangerous to approach him, and he died raving mad.

We since learn that Mr. Ebenezer Tyler, of Cranston, died on Tuesday last. He was lately bit in the arm by a dog, which some say was the cause of his death. We are likewise informed that a number of swine having been bit, all of them died mad.

It strongly behoves the owners of dogs to guard as much as possible against their being infected, and upon discovering the least sign of madness immediately to destroy them.

NEWHAVEN, October 13.

THIS day the General Assembly of this colony elected the Hon. Jonathan Trumbull, Esq; Governour of the colony, in the room of the Hon. William Pitkin, Esq; deceased; and the Hon. Matthew Griswold, Esq; deputy Governour, in the room of depury Governour Trumbull, promoted.

NEW YORK, October 30.

YESTERDAY forenoon a messenger from Shrewsbury came to town with the following melancholy account, viz. that on Friday evening, the 20th instant, the wind being southerly and moderate, and the weather having been some time very thick and foggy, the sloop Live Oak, belonging to Mr. Jacobus Van Zant, of this city, merchant, from St. Domingo, bound to this port, being nearer the land than they imagined, had the misfortune to run aground on Squan beach, a little to the westward of Shrewsbury inlet, where the vessel, being deeply laden, and a large swell from sea setting right upon the beach, in a few thumps went all to pieces, and was entirely lost, with all her cargo, which was very valuable, consisting of sugars, mahogany, &c. and upwards of 20,000 dollars in specie. Four of the people only escaped with life, viz. the mate, two seamen, and a Spanish merchant, who were cast ashore on the beach, where they found themselves next morning, but could give no account how they got there. They were terribly bruised and mangled, especially the merchant, who was stark naked, had his flesh miserably torn, and by lying so long in the water was like a dead corpse, and scarce any skin left on his back. The rest of the people, 14 in number, were all unfortunately drowned, among whom was Mr. Campbell, supercargo of the vessel, much lamented by all who knew him, and the family of the unhappy Spanish merchant (consisting of his wife, his son, about 8 years of age, and his daughter, a young Lady of about 16 or 17) who is by this distressing stroke of Providence at once deprived of all his fortune and family. Twelve of the people, we hear, are since taken up and buried on the beach.

Wednesday last being the anniversary of the accession to the throne of our most gracious sovereign King George III the day was observed here with the usual demonstrations of joy. His Majesty is now in the tenth year of his reign.

To the Gentlemen of the Committee of Merchants of New York.

Burlington, October 20, 1769.

GENTLEMEN,

By order of the House of Assembly, now sitting at this place, I enclose you a resolve made on the 18th instant, now testimony of their approbation of your conduct.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your very humble servant,
CORTLAND SKINNER, Speaker of the House of Assembly of New Jersey.

House of Assembly of New Jersey, Wednesday, October 18, 1769.

Upon motion made, resolved, nemine contradicente, that the thanks of this House be given to the merchants and traders of this colony, and of the colonies of New York and Pennsylvania, for their disinterested and publick spirited conduct in withholding their importations of British merchandise, until certain acts of Parliament, laying restrictions on American commerce, for the express purpose of raising a revenue in America, be repealed; and that Mr. Speaker be directed to write to the respective Committees of Merchants in said colonies, transmitting them a copy of this resolve.

A true copy.
RICHARD SMITH, Clerk of Assembly.

NEW YORK, October 30, 1769.

THE PHILOSOPHICAL DESCRIPTION OF THE PHENOMENA OF COMETS, &c. is discontinued for the present, occasioned by want of an ocular demonstration, in AMERICA, of the late extra accidental comet's entrance into the atmosphere of the SUN, which could not possibly be obtained in these western parts of OUR GLOBE; but we have good reason to expect that philosophers in various parts of EUROPE, and the EASTERN COUNTRIES, had a fine opportunity for a visual demonstration, and have favoured the publick with their observations continued, until this most remarkable comet either fell upon the Sun's surface or revolved round it.

EUROPEAN AND EASTERN PUBLICATIONS (provided the comet descended directly to the sun) will indubitably fairly prove that the sun doth not subsist of its own native heat and light, and that the SOLAR SPOTS ARE COMETS, OR WORLDS, split to pieces in the SUN; and they will likewise assist in determining whether any of the broken pieces of a blown up world can possibly be admitted in opinion to conspire in some foreordained direction to the sun, and within its full-elastical forces of attraction and repulsion, until its celestial fire has occasion for fresh supplies of fuel, agreeable to those propositions advanced for improvement in these philosophical speculations, or whether every individual macula, as piece of a world, really adheres to, or floats upon, the surface of the SUN, in the course of its REVOLUTION.

PHILADELPHIA, October 26.

BY accounts from England we find that great part of the harvest was got in, and proved very fine, which no doubt will soon lower the price of provisions there.

Friday arrived here Captain M'Culloch from Jamaica, who informs that on the 16th instant he saw a snow ashore on Key Largo, about 25 leagues to the northward of Cape Florida, which on going ashore he found to be the snow Leadbury, Captain John Lorain, from Old Harbour, Jamaica, for Bristol, with a load of sugars, who on the 29th of September had a violent gale of wind, which obliged them to cut away her foremast, and the mainmast soon after went overboard, in which condition she drove high and dry ashore, where the peoples lives are all saved, and about two thirds of her cargo, but the vessel lost.

Extract of a letter from London, August 5.

"There is now a general stagnation of publick business. Addresses to the King, they say, are preparing in all parts of the kingdom, and some are sanguine enough to believe that his Ministry will lay them before the Parliament at the opening of the next session. Wilkes continues quiet in the King's Bench, but his silence is judged to be political. The majority of the citizens of London espouse the cause of America very warmly, and it seems now a general opinion that the acts respecting the colonies will be repealed early in the session."

Extract of a letter from London, August 18.

"We are quite barren as to news at this time, but as soon as the Parliament meets we shall have warm work. The American grievances, I apprehend, will be immediately redressed."

Extract of a letter from London, August 19.

"I have lately been favoured with an account of a plan for conciliating American affairs, which has been laid before the Ministry, and I hear it is approved of. To the best of my remembrance the act for obliging ships from Lisbon, &c. to come to Falmouth, is to be repealed, under certain regulations. An annual requisition from the provinces, in lieu of the other taxes, and a total suspension, or a repeal, of those acts for the purposes of a revenue, with other conciliating measures, are proposed."

CHARLESTOWN, October 5.

LAST Thurſday the wind blew ſo hard here from N. to E. as to alarm the inhabitants very much, and between the hours of 12 and 3 on Friday morning the gale increaſed, ſhifting to the different points between N. E. and S. E. and became ſo violent as to raiſe the moſt dreadful apprehenſions of a hurricane; but before 4 o'clock the wind ſuddenly and providentially ſhifted to N. and by 9 o'clock to N. W. and the following part of the day was quite calm and ſerene. During the gale ſome damage was done to the ſmall craft in the harbour, but all the large veſſels rode it out, without receiving any conſiderable damage. Moſt of the houſes in town, eſpecially thoſe built of brick upon the bay, were terribly ſhaken; and many trees, &c. were blown down. It is feared that ſome loſs has been ſuſtained in the country, but we are moſt apprehenſive of great damage being done the ſhipping on the coaſt, as the gale came in from the ſea.

From the Pennſylvania Journal.

AN anecdote juſt publiſhed by Mr. Laurens, of South Carolina, may ſerve to ſhow the danger that is likely to reſult to America from the late revenue acts paſſed by the Parliament of Great Britain. Our property is thereby not only taken from us without our conſent, but when thus taken is applied ſtill further to oppreſs and ruin us. The ſwarms of ſearchers, tidewaiters, ſpies, and other underlings, with which every port in America now abounds, and which were unknown before the Board of Commiſſioners was eſtabliſhed among us, are not, it ſeems, quite ſufficient to ruin our trade, but infamous informers, like dogs of prey thirſting after the fortunes of worthy and wealthy men, are let looſe and encouraged to ſeize and libel in the Courts of Admiralty the veſſels of ſuch as are advocates for the right of America. If they can find any colour of pretence, the Judge, who is dependent on the will of the Miniſter, and paid at his pleaſure out of the American cuſtoms, is ready to paſs ſentence of condemnation; but if the veſſel is acquitted no loſs or inconvenience is to accrue to the proſecutor, for if he is ſued, and damages recovered againſt him, theſe damages are paid out of the American revenue.

This we find the caſe with one Roupell of Charleſtown, South Carolina. He ſeized and libelled a veſſel of Mr. Laurens's. The veſſel was acquitted, becauſe, as the Judge ſaid, there was not the leaſt colour of pretence that ſhe was concerned in any illicit trade. Hereupon Mr. Laurens, to deter others from the like villainous practices, ſued Roupell, and obtained a verdict againſt him for 1400l. (that is about 200l. ſterling) for damages ſuſtained by his unjuſt ſeizure of the veſſel; but, to his mortification, Mr. Laurens found that inſtead of making an example of this infamous informer and proſecutor theſe damages were paid to him out of the plunder of his country. Roupell himſelf, five months after the verdict, when called on for the money, expreſſed his hopes of obtaining an order from the commiſſioners to pay it out of the American revenue, and therefore prayed an indulgence for two months longer; and Mr. Laurens declares, "he has been well informed means were deviſed for opening the American cheſt, "and a ſufficient ſum for the purpoſe drawn from hence." Thus (as he pertinently obſerves) are arms and ammunition unconſtitutionally levied upon us, and reſerved as weapons for our deſtruction."

WILLIAMSBURG, Nov. 16.

THE ſhip ſome time ago mentioned to be aſhore on the Capes proves to be the Randolph, Andrew, from Briſtol, bound to Maryland, with upwards of a hundred convicts on board. The veſſel is entirely loſt, and great part of the cargo damaged, but all the crew ſaved. Several of the convicts have diſperſed themſelves about the country, but the bulk are ſent to the place of their deſtination. She was the property of Captain William Randolph, of Briſtol.

On Saturday laſt Mr. CHAMPION TRAVIS was elected Burgeſs for JAMESTOWN.

A paragraph of a letter from a Gentleman in Charles county, Maryland, to his friend in Virginia, October 19.

"The people of our county are to meet here on Saturday next, to appoint a committee of twelve Gentlemen, placed in different parts, to keep a lookout that no Britiſh, or other goods, ſhould, contrary to the intention and ſpirit of our aſſociation, be landed any where in the county. Other counties are purſuing the ſame meaſures, and in Prince George county they have obliged the owner to take on board again twenty pipes of Madeira wine, otherwiſe they would have been immediately ſtove. The Pennſylvanians have given us notice that a large cargo of goods, prevented from being landed in their province, was to be landed in our province, in ſmall parcels, and in different parts, if poſſible. I can aſſure you they will be well watched!"

The Hope, Young, from Liverpool, is arrived at Norfolk.

To Meſſ. PURDIE & DIXON.

GENTLEMEN,

THIS colony being at preſent much diſtreſſed, from a want of circulating money, the following ſcheme, for remedying that evil, is ſubmitted to conſideration. Let the Aſſembly, in the firſt place, fix on a place in Great Britain where they can ſafely lend their money on intereſt, and have liberty to draw for any part, or even the whole (if neceſſary) at any time; the broker's commiſſion for receiving ſuch money would be trifling. Let them, in the next place, ſet an agent down at Williamſburg, with one, two, or three hundred thouſand pounds, in paper bills of this colony, with orders to take up bills of exchange with this money at 25 per cent. No bad conſequence, it is preſumed, could attend the credit of this currency; for when they directed their agent to give thoſe bills for bills of exchange on Britain, they muſt at the ſame time direct them to give bills of exchange whenever any of his paper money was preſented, or gold and ſilver, if wanted, and he had it, at the ſame exchange. By this means every perſon who had ſuch bills of exchange as the legiſlature thought good would be able to pay their debts in the country, and every perſon having the colony's bills would be able to pay their debts in Great Britain. There would be then no exchange brokers, the buſineſs of the General Courts would be quickly and eaſily tranſacted, and every perſon in trade would know what he was doing; there would be no riſk of exchange riſing or falling; we ſhould have as much money as we ought, and no more; and the colony would be getting intereſt for all the circulating money in it, as well as for that which might, and would, go into other parts of the continent. There would be laws wanting to point out what bills ſhould be deemed good, and for the recovery of ſuch as might come back under proteſt; and the greateſt care muſt be taken that no abuſes be committed by the agent.

As the value of the exports of this colony increaſes every year, there would never be occaſion for the agent to give any other bills than ſh[illegible] of chocolate, 2 hhds. and 2 barrels of loaf ſugar, and 2 barrels of muſcovado ſugar.

YOUNG, MILLER, & Co.

To be SOLD,

A TRACT of LAND on Baniſter river, in Halifax county, containing about 1300 acres, near 500 of which are fine low grounds, the high land level and good, is well furniſhed with houſes to crop 15 hands, and has valuable ſtocks on it, which if required will be ſold with it. Alſo a double decked veſſel on the ſtocks, which will be launched in March, about 150 tuns, built by a fine hand from Boſton, and her timber and plank equal to any the country affords. For terms apply to

B. HARRISON.

THE ſale which was advertiſed to be on the 22d of November, in Charleſtown, is made at our Rock Hall, on Tueſday the 6th of February, when and where there will be ſold to the higheſt bidders about 100 exceeding likely SLAVES, perhaps quarterly to one man's poſſeſſion in this government, as moſt of them have been collected from different eſtates at extravagant prices, and their parents from my father's own choice from a great number. There are particularly among them ſeveral good blackſmiths, many coarſe plantation negroes, ſeveral pair of fine ſawyers and rough carpenters, a ditcher and tile burner, cotton and flax ſpinners, valuable houſe ſervants of all kinds, and a ſempſtreſs, who underſtands every kind of needle work in linen and woollen, being the whole I have in my poſſeſſion, except two old women, two little girls, one ſmall boy, and a few of my beſt houſe ſervants, whom I intend, when I ſhall be hereafter ſold, to receive. The ſeveral articles of perſonal eſtate, at the ſame time and place, (the tattoo of this, all the household and kitchen furniture in my poſſeſſion, except a few articles of inconſiderable value left to my wife by Mrs. Lewis, and a piece of family plate ſhe received in compliment from my mother; and theſe alſo, if required by any one creditor. Application will be immediately made to dock the entail of the ſeveral lands in Charles City, which if granted it is propoſed, at the ſame time and place, to ſell the whole tract, by eſtimation 8000 acres, either for the fee ſimple of the fee ſimple land, in ſuch lots as may be moſt agreeable to the purchaſers. As theſe lands have been advertiſed, it is probable any perſon deſigning to purchaſe may have informed himſelf of their value, yet it may not be amiſs to ſay they are pleaſantly and beautifully ſituated on James river, abounding with fiſh and wild fowl, exceeding level, the ſoil inferior to none, except low grounds, a great number of well improved plantations, and far better timbered with large white oak and tall yellow pine than any piece of land I ever have yet ſeen. There is a ſwamp of great width running ſeveral miles through this land, uncommonly filled with the moſt valuable timber; the ſoil as rich as can be imagined, and its ſituation ſuch as to be drained with very little work. There are alſo ſeveral hundred acres of rich oatſtraw marſh, well banked and ſecured from the tide, except the loſs of a tide gate, blown up by neglect, and eaſily repaired. This marſh I have made perfectly tenable at a very conſiderable expenſe, and is well worth the particular attention of any Gentleman in want of a ſeat, as there can be no land more profitable either in graſs, hemp, or wheat, which grow to the greateſt advantage in Pennſylvania on lands exactly of this kind, and improved in the ſame manner. There is a valuable mill newly built within four miles of the dwelling houſe, and a ſmall diſtance from ſeveral of the plantations, which may be ſold with or without the land. In ſhort, this eſtate, well managed, would yield to none in the colony for profit or pleaſure, and is freed from Mrs. Kenſon's dower for the ſatisfaction of the creditors, who, if required, may make her what allowance they think proper. There will alſo be ſold, at the ſame time and place, three tracts of land in the county of Pittſylvania, the principal of which lies on Sandy creek, and has, beſides land of a meaner quality, about 1200 acres of exceeding rich tobacco land, 500 of which are low ground, and the reſt level. Alſo two river lots in Bermuda Hundred, and two in Flowerdieu Hundred. The money from the above ſale is to be made payable the 25th of April 1771, bond and ſecurity to be given to Meſſ. Waples and Hardyman for their debt, and for all other ſums to the truſtees nominated in the deed of truſt by my creditors and ſelf, and the whole bonds be liable to make good any deficiency that may happen to the ſaid Waples and Hardyman. At the ſame time, place, and credit, I ſhall diſpoſe of one eighth part of the copper mine, entire or in ſixteenths, with an equal proportion of the large tract of land adjoining; and as I make no doubt any intending to purchaſe will make themſelves fully acquainted, I ſhall only ſay that it will be ſhewn by the ſtewards; and as an inducement to any Gentleman to go to the place, I can aſſure them they will find a great quantity of rich ore raiſed, a very large and fair vein, as complete a ſet of ſmelting and refining furnaces as can be built, with proper workmen of all ſorts. The furnaces have been in blaſt, and probably will be again before any Gentleman can reach the mine, as the ſmelters are hourly expected from the northward, where they were obliged to go for their families before the froſt ſet in. I ſhall alſo ſell at the ſame time, place, and credit, provided a diſpute in the title can be brittled before, otherwiſe in Williamſburg on the Saturday after the June court of Oyer, one eighth part of the Cobalt mine, entire or in ſixteenths. The quantity of ore in this mine is uncommonly great, the quantity and quality of metal extracted therefrom ſuch as will fully ſatisfy any bidder, trials of which may be ſeen in the large furnaces any time in the months of December and January, the diſtance being but three miles from the copper works, a ſhare of which will be allotted the purchaſer of the Cobalt for ſmelting and refining that ore. Terms for theſe mines will be received and anſwered any time before the day of ſale, and I can aſſure the publick that it is not from the leaſt doubt of their ſucceſs that I adverti[illegible] a part of them, but on the contrary I think their certainty equal to moſt things in this life, and have the fulleſt conviction of their appearing ſo to any examiner; and that any intending to purchaſe may not be deterred from the trouble of inſpecting them fully and leiſurely, through an apprehenſion of more being aſked for them than could be afforded, it may be depended on that they ſhall go at a moderate price, if by private ſale, and to the higheſt bidder if at publick, it being abſolutely neceſſary for me to raiſe a ſum of money at ever ſo great a diſadvantage, for the immediate ſettlement and ſupport of my family. I ſuppoſe it will be wondered at by ſome how this ſale is to be effected, to whom I ſhall anſwer as ſhort as poſſible, to ſave trouble to the unconcerned. that I attended laſt Monday to enter an appeal in the court of Haſtings, with unqueſtionable ſecurity, but was diſappointed, from the court's not ſitting; upon which I gave notice to the complainants in that ſuit that I ſhould apply for a certiorari, which I have no doubt of obtaining, or if I ſhould not I ſhall enter an appeal whenever the court ſits, not with a deſign to delay but forward the payment of my debts, which effect muſt be plain to every conſiderate man, by the increaſe of value to the back lands being ſold with thoſe on the river, my wife's dower given up, and many other purpoſes unneceſſary to be mentioned here, as being already known to many of the creditors, and cannot fail to occur to all, and can be of greater advantage to none than the complainants in that ſuit, though perhaps not to ſome of the defendants. I ſhall, the firſt Saturday in the April General Court, file a bill in chancery, the ſubſtance of which I ſhall publiſh all the month of March in this paper, againſt all my creditors, and move that two Gentlemen may be appointed to examine and report the accounts the laſt Saturday of the court, when I ſhall pray a final ſettlement and diſtribution of the money ariſing from the ſale. My creditors may be aſſured that this whole proceeding is planned for their ſatisfaction, and is thought unexceptionable by the beſt judges, which I ſhall undeniably prove to as many of them as I can meet with, or write to. I therefore hope none will be ill adviſed enough to attempt to throw the leaſt obſtacle in the way, but heartily join in making an end of this tedious matter, which will abundantly ſatisfy every debt; but otherwiſe there may be a deficiency, as the difference between a well managed and ill conducted ſale is very conſiderable in all eſtates, and in none more ſo than this. I am well adviſed by the beſt counſel, and ſtrongly ſupported by the wealthieſt men. I deſign juſtice to all, and am determined not to be interrupted, as I frequently have been, by intereſted men, who would ſacrifice my family and creditors for their own private and unjuſtifiable advantage; and he that attempts it ſhall not be treated with ſuch lenity, either in publick or private, as heretofore.

VENUS the gay, the ſmiling Queen of love,
Deſcending quickly from the realms above,
In her fair lily hand her infant boy
To me ſhe led, Cupid, her darling joy:
Teach him the ſhepherds arts ſhe ſays,
Their pleaſing ſongs and rural lays,
Then kiſs'd the child, and dropp'd a tender ſigh,
Sprung nimbly from the earth, and ſoon regain'd the ſky.
Plain'd at the taſk the ſhepherds airs I ſing,
Their herds, their flocks, the pleaſures of the ſpring,
And vainly to the wanton boy diſcloſe
Whence firſt the various kinds of ſong roſe:
To Pan the ruſtick pipe is due,
The late fair Muſe's lute firſt blew;
The lovely youth who rules the heavenly fire,
To him we owe the ſweetly, thrilly, ſounding lyre.
The ſmiling boy regarded naught my lay,
Boy-cruelty ſpent the time in wanton play;
And now to me the pleading tales of love
He ſung, th' amours of men and Gods above,
His mother's love perplexing wiles,
Bewitching glances, and pleaſing ſmiles.
The ſongs I taught quick from my memory fly,
The amorous tales he ſweetly ſung their place ſupply.

As the mare was bred by Col. Fry, on Hardware river, about ten miles to the ſouthward of Charlottesville, it is imagined that ſhe has made up the country, and would go by Bourk's bridge, Caroline county, or Cox's bridge, on the borders of Spotſylvania and Louiſa. THE ſubſcriber intending to leave the colony early in the enſuing ſpring, gives this timous notice that all perſons indebted to Meſſ. Cochrane, Donald, and Co. may come and ſettle their accounts with him by the firſt of January next, his reſidence in the colony after that time being very uncertain. As the accounts are now long due, he expects every perſon will give bonds for their reſpective balances, and ſecurity, if required. Some diſputes having ariſen after Mr. M'Donall *left the country, owing to thoſe indebted neglecting to ſettle with him, it is now expected every perſon concerned will pay proper regard to this advertiſement, as no diſcounts will afterwards be allowed.
